Nov. 17. One half of the regular dues is turned over to the national organization to be used in national disasters which strike various parts of our country every year.
One fourth is used by the Marion country chapter, and one fourth by the local chapter.
One local project for the coming year will be the establishing of at least one first-aid station, in view of the heavy highway traffic through the town. Opportunity will be given by the Marion county chapter for interested persons to take a course of instruction in giving first-aid to the injured in event of accident.
Another project is the prospective establishment of an emergency loan station for the township. This would make available certain necessary articles for use in case of serious sickness that are not usually found in the homeimmediately after their use is not required, they are to be sterilized and scrumed for the next cail.
The business places will be reached by Mrs. H. Coleuman. Mrs.

DON M'ELROY TRIAL SET FOR TOMORROW

He said that while construction is increasing in volume it is held back by high costs and that while a rast amount of governme tal money and effort has been devoted to attempts to attimute it, they have not availed much to aspeed up private expenditure. He interpreted the chief signiftionnee of the November elections for business as showing that the American people firmly desire to have their government actively articipate in their economic problems. The people now look to their government as being able to solve their problems and they intend to insist that it shall solve their problems and they intend to insist that it shall solve their problems and they intend to insist that it shall solve their protections but it is a timpostable to foresee how it is likely to take shape as the events of the grant unfold.

Quick Work.

The sales tax has been lifted from food thereby conforming exactly with the out come of the referendum Nov 3. The state isk commission has done quick work.

Unfortunately theres more to removal of the sales tax on food than merely removing it. Unices the Davey administration emas thought to save cent mones are other source of revenue must be found

Three years ago Ohio approved a consti tutional amendment placing a 10 mill limit on real callic taxation. The result of that move was to make passage of a sales tax law incellable. It wasn't a mutter of right and wrong but a question of obtaining revenue

The sales tax law now has been pruned of one important source of revenue In all propability another source will have to be created to keep schools open and to pay for other necessary functions. Very likely in the course of time the substitute source will be shut off partially or wholly

This is all part of the process of tax ad Justment which apparently won't be conchided until the sinte can raise all the money it needs without collecting it from anyone who doesn't pay it cheerfully. That is going to take a lot of time a lot of refuendums and a lot of quick work

Senator from Tennessee.

It's hard to be sure whits going on in the mind of Tennessees tien Melvellar He's the one who wants to investigate the Literary Digest poll which showed Gov Landon winning before election results showed the opposite

Sen McKellar seems to expect to discover that the Digesta editors doctored the returns. Then apparently he would have an excuse for demanding that all straw votes be placed under federal supervision. The Digest, wisely has invited him to star probing any time has ready

But whet a roundabout was to get at a result! The senator plainly has been car tied away by anger against a straw vote which failed to show President Isosevelt would win easily In view of the results and in consideration of the already created crushed prestige of Digest poll Sen Mc Kellar is holding his grudge an unreason ably long time The senator from Tennessee would do well to follow the example of his political superiors and try to be gracious

If he wants to propose restrictions on national straw votes when congress convenes more power to him but there's no point in being silly about it.

Foreign Money Flowing To U.S.

WASHINGTON No. 19-Behind President Roosevell's promise to do something about foreign money rolling into this county for investment is a current situation which few people know about Evervone seems to be assuming that the amount of gold counting here from aboud is the true measure of feeding. ure of foreign invokement. Desergold imports have not been extra large lately. Their aggregate total for the pust year or we has not reached an immediate danger point. Consequently, there has been a tendency to look for political or other motives behind the President's move.

A leading fluorital incider however, has made an investigation which indicated the situation is not all well a north use. of foreign investment These which indicated the situation is not all gold About a month ago he become impressed by indications that bickers with whom he was in counter were not doing their usual share of the stock market business. He thought the trouble might be with the brokers so he made a personal investigation and discovered that all the tion and discovered that all the large commission houses out in large commission houses out in the country were in the same quanding the lusiness was coming from somewheir class. Only one deduction was passible An unusually large proportion of the buying which has sent the stock market up during the last 30 days has come from abroad from London Amsterdam and Parls It will not show in the gold figures for a long time if ever the study which Mr Rooseelt in directing will not have to proceed very fire to find a method of stopping foreign investments here

stopping foreign investments here They can be taxed

It is very doubtful however that

It is very adjustiff nowever that this complete tenneds will be suggested. The fact is foreign in vestments are tennable. The trouble cones when they are with drawn and serious trouble comes if they are all with hown at once.

If they are all with hown at once they can thus affect our markets year serious.

The problem is not how to keep the money out but how to keep it here. This is a little harder to do but as far no little harder to do but as far no little gold exports are concerned they are all reads, subject to with frawal it censes. And in exert of war they could be select.

Constructive Suggestion.

Apparently the President was only trying to point to one weekness in the present financial recovery movement and show his administration is alect to it. Also in a negative way he disclosed the post election purpose of his

the post election purrose of his administration to protect existing

If any situation is going to develop shortly which would cause European investors to withdraw their funds from this country no one here seems to know it Ap-parently that confideration did not enter into the decision Preparations
